FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Omega Men gather in Philadelphia for Leadership Conference

“Everything Rises and Falls on Leadership –Leadership Today, Tomorrow and Forever”

DECATUR, GA – May 14, 2007 – More than 500 people representing many of the nation’s leading corporations and successful businesses are expected to attend the two-day Omega Psi Phi Leadership Conference, beginning Friday, July 13 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Most attendees will be members of Omega Psi Phi, but the public is invited to come and listen to keynote addresses from a distinguished series of invited articulate thinkers, including, L. Douglas Wilder, Mayor of Richmond, VA; Peter Harvey, Attorney General for the State of New Jersey; and Roger Kingdom, Olympic Champion and Track and Field Coach.

The theme of the conference will be: “Everything Rises and Falls on Leadership – Leadership Today, Tomorrow and Forever.” “The conference will consist of “break-out” sessions that will focus on leadership,” said Carl A. Blunt, First Vice-Grand Basileus of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity. “There will be considerable discussion on critical issues impacting African-American males, including fatherhood, education, teamwork, family-oriented activities, and entrepreneurship and franchising opportunities.”

Attendees are invited to participate in a job fair, celebrity golf tournament and a daily health screening. There will also be ample opportunity to tour the City of Brotherly Love , enjoy the music of Philadelphia jazz recording band, “Pieces of a Dream,” and worship and fellowship with the Men of Omega Psi Phi.

Early-bird registration for graduate members is $150 plus hotel, and $100 for undergraduate members. For more information, call the Omega Psi Phi International Headquarters at (404) 284-5533, or visit <http://www.oppf.org/docs/2007LCRegistrationInfov3.pdf>

Omega Psi Phi has over 700 chapters throughout the United States, Bermuda, Bahamas, U.S. Virgin Islands, Korea, Japan, Liberia, Germany, and Kuwait. There are many notable Omega Men recognized as leaders in the arts, the sciences, academics, athletics, business, civil rights, education and government.
