For Immediate Release

“Rolling Over Cancer Motorcycle Ride and Health Expo

The Atlanta area chapters of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. have joined forces to raise funds to combat cancer and increase awareness of the health disparities in our community.

Join the Brothers of Omega on Saturday, September 30, 2017 from 11:00am to 3:00pm at the Omega World Center, 3951 Snapfinger Parkway, Decatur, Georgia for the Rolling Over Cancer Motorcycle Ride and Health Expo.

Health care agencies will educate and provide free prostate, mammogram, and blood pressure screenings. In addition, sessions on the Affordable Health Care Act, prostate/breast cancer and mental health awareness will be conducted.

Motorcycle riders will take the message around Atlanta I-285 to promote cancer awareness. Registration for the bikers is $10.00 and can be executed at www. Omega-pkk.org. The expo is free to the public. The expo and empowerment session schedule is as follows:

Ω 11:15am - 3:00pm, Health & Wellness Expo and Display

Ω 11:15am - 12:15pm, Breast and Prostate Cancer Awareness

Ω 12:30pm - 1:30pm, Mental Health Awareness – Brother You are on My Mind

Ω 1:45pm - 2:45pm, Affordable Health Care Act

Ω 2:45pm – 3:00pm, St Jude Hospital and Cancer Wellness Center of Atlanta

This interactive town hall meeting will give attendees life changing information that will advance families for generations and save lives. Proceeds from the event will support St. Jude Hospital and the Atlanta Cancer Wellness Center.
